Scripture

- Isaiah 41:8-10

But you, Israel, My servant, Jacob whom I have chosen, Descendant of Abraham My Friend, You whom I have taken from the ends of the earth and called from its remotest parts and said to you, 'You are My servant, I have chosen you and not rejected you. Do not fear, for I am with you; Do not anxiously look about you, for I am your God. I will strengthen you, surely, I will help you, Surely, I will uphold you with My righteous right hand.'

Other Scriptures

- Isaiah 8:12-14
- Galatians 3:14
- John 8; 10:27
- Psalm 27:1-3
- Matthew 28:20
- Revelation 2:7

Main Points

- We need to rebuke the spirit of unbelief!

Discussion Questions

1. Describe your experience in God's revelation of Jesus to you. Can you relate to the fact of a dramatic change of life in your transition from darkness to light and life? Write your testimony in a few sentences. If your testimony is less dramatic, how is God glorified in your story?
2. Why can we make application of these promises to ourselves since it is written to Israel?
3. What spirits hinder us in experiencing God's comfort and peace and joy in the many powerful promises of God?
4. What is the difference between horizontal and vertical focus in life? Which is God's choice?
5. What is the cure for anxiety?
