

The Law of Resistance: Darkness in Disguise

Scripture

- James 4:7
Submit therefore to God. Resist devil and he will flee from you.

Other Scriptures

- Matthew 4:1
- Luke 4:14
- Romans 11:36
- Revelation 2:7

Main Points

- When we resist the forces of darkness, we build up internal power in the Holy Spirit, that causes us to overcome and be conquerors for God.
- We need to learn how to resist the darkness that disguises itself as an angel of light.
- We need to practice the law of resistance.
- That which we see in the physical world is a shadow of what exists in the invisible realm.
- God is the Giver and He created mankind to be the receivers.
- God created us to be receivers.
- We have to resist trying to fulfill our desires by yielding to false light.
- The key to understanding how to resist false light is to be able to have the spiritual discernment to recognize that it is false.
- Through resisting, the power of the Holy Spirit is built into our soul, and we shine as the lights of Jesus in this world.

Discussion Questions

1. How is internal power in the Holy Spirit that makes us overcomers built in our lives spiritually?
2. What is false light? Why do we need to discern false from true light and then resist this false messaging to our emotions?
3. What is the outcome of listening to false light?
4. How did Jesus demonstrate resisting false light from the enemy? After He resisted, what did He then experience? How do we become more discerning about what messages are coming to us?
5. At the end of the teaching, Rabbi talked about why space is black even though the sun is there? Write about what this means as a spiritual parallel and why the need to resist is actually a blessing to you.
