Scripture

- Romans 8:28
“...all things work together for good...”

Other Scriptures

- Proverbs 23:7
- 2 Corinthians 10:5
- I John 5:19
- Revelation 2:13
- Job 1:12
- Romans 8:28-29
- James 1:2-4
- Luke 4:14

Main Points

- In order to subject our thoughts to God, we must have revelation of the truth.
- In order to think supernaturally, we must know that God is good.
- In order to think supernaturally, we have to know that God is sovereign.
- Thinking supernaturally involves getting the mind of Christ.
- In the midst of our day, we should be praying to know His thoughts.
- You can't run from your pain, because wherever you go, there you are.
- If you deny yourself the natural, you'll have more of the supernatural.
- If you run from pain to pleasure, the enemy will rob you of what God wants to give you.
- Stay grounded and believe that God is doing something good in your life right now!

Discussion Questions

1. What two revelations must we be certain of in order to think supernaturally?
2. What should we be praying throughout our days and our experiences?
3. What does the Enemy try to seduce us into doing, rather than to think supernaturally?
4. When anxious thoughts come; What are we pulled too?
5. What is the problem with giving in to those thoughts?
6. What key aspect is true if we deny the natural appetites the Enemy tries to entice us toward?
7. What is the reward for allowing God to lead us through the challenges we face?
